

Morningstar[®] Managed Portfolios[™] Passive Range

Core strategies designed to maximise the strengths of passive investments.

For Investment Adviser Use Only

Passive, Risk-Aware Growth

These Morningstar® Managed Portfolios™ are designed to provide low-cost, risk-aware managed investments that take advantage of the cost and style benefits associated with passive investing.

Exacting Asset Allocation

Because of their straightforward composition, passive investments do not face the possibility of investment style drift that vehicles under active management face. This makes Morningstar's passive portfolios the purest expression of our asset-allocation strategy. With no actively managed investments, our passive portfolios feature exact expressions of Morningstar's asset-allocation targets for each risk level.

The foundation of our asset-allocation strategy is our leading research on long-term valuation-driven asset allocation. Our portfolio managers consider all asset classes globally to build diversified portfolios consisting primarily of equities, fixed income and cash. This gives investors exposure to a broad range of asset classes.

Independent Research

All passive investments are not the same, so Morningstar uses research from our global team of analysts to find best-fit investments for our passive portfolios.

Morningstar analysts use our proprietary methodology to generate independent, objective ratings and reports, which our portfolio managers use to find the building blocks for each of our passive portfolios. This helps each portfolio not only match the specifications of our asset-allocation models, but also feature the most suitable picks for every asset class. And our portfolio managers are always able to consult with Morningstar analysts if circumstances change or adjustments need to be made.

Costs

While performance for any investment is uncertain, costs are not. Low turnover and low overhead mean that a passive investment's performance shouldn't be eaten away by a high expense ratio. Our portfolio managers don't just look at price, because low costs won't help a fund with high tracking error or poor implementation.

We research the investment universe to find the most effective, lowest-cost options that fit each portfolio's needs suitably and responsibly, while offering a convenient way to give all types of investors exposure to specific market segments.
